

ATTENTION NGENers, don't miss your chance to win the NGEN Award

You have until 3 May (not as long as you think), to get your entries in for the NGEN Award.

Part of the MFA Awards, the NGEN Award is designed to develop the skills and recognise the talent of young media executives with less than five years' experience – that's you, gang! – while making a difference.

This year, we're asking you to help UnLTD charity Musicians Making a Difference (MMAD), which transforms young lives through music, to raise awareness of MMAD Day and bring in much-needed donations.
