

MFA EX CALL FOR AGENCY CONTENT

What is MFA EX?

Our industry purpose is to influence change, for society, for the economy, our clients, our agencies, our people, and our careers. We Are The Changers!

MFA EX is a day where the media agency industry stops - to educate, challenge, and inspire each and every one of us to drive an effectiveness culture in everything we do, and thus continuing our mission to deliver our industry purpose. It is not just about what we do, but why and how we do it.

And there's no better way to be re-inspired and reminded about everything that is great in our industry and our ability to make change, than by re-connecting with industry peers and hearing from amazing speakers, all with the common purpose of making our industry better at what we do. In 2023 more than 2,500 of the media agency industry came together at MFA EX in Sydney and Melbourne – and MFA 2024 will be even bigger!

MFA EX Melbourne will take place on Thursday 5th September, and MFA EX Sydney will take place on Thursday 19th September – save the dates!

THE CONTENT BRIEF

What are we looking for in your content idea?

The content should reflect current, emerging and future industry topics and trends and align to the event theme: Change for the better.

What content topics are we looking for?

Bettering our product/craft: Media is one of the most dynamic and rapidly changing careers to be a part of. With that comes new ways to apply our craft to deliver greater cultural, consumer and commercial outcomes. Every year we will be looking for relevant areas and tangible solutions we as an industry need to embrace change for the better.

'Bettering our product/craft' is our focus pillar. The intention is for multiple submissions under this pillar be selected. Submissions do not necessarily need to be centred around campaigns. View incredible examples of how this has been delivered previously here.

Bettering our people: Media is a human powered industry, and to get the most out of our people we need to continually enrich how the industry looks after them and helps us all create positive relationships. Each year we will seek new ways to change the media industry value proposition for the better in the eyes of our people, our clients, and the public.

Bettering our society/environment: We are the changers. Blessed by a unique opportunity to impact & influence corporates and consumers, these sessions will dive into innovative ways we can harness media to change culture for the better. We all have a responsibility to leave this world in a better place than we left it, and as such this is our ever-evolving mission.

A client's perspective: Media only takes 5% of our client's time...so what do they actually think about it? We are looking for real-world perspectives from keynote CEOs/CMOs on the topics of the industry that are top of their minds, and how we can help them, their commercial outcomes, their customers, and broader society change for the better.

Through the MFA EX content we want to put a spotlight on the areas of positive change in our industry and provide the inspiration to take action!

We want to influence and inspire new thinking and industry behaviours by providing new and/or provocative perspectives. We want aspirational and motivational content delivered in a way that conveys the fun and dynamism of our industry. Interactivity should be incorporated wherever possible and content that demonstrates or rallies our industry to be The Changers will be highly regarded.

Feedback from attendees in 2023 is that they want to see a mix of content; inspirational and motivational as well as practical applications to their roles with key actionable outtakes to help them be better at what they do, every day.

What's the brief?

You have 15 minutes to inspire, educate and challenge the entire industry on one of the above themes. This could include (but is not in any way limited to) inspirational keynote speakers or subject matter experts, interactive audience experiments, agency presentations, a fireside chat, case studies, industry collaborations – it is completely up to you, your agency, and your creativity.

What's the content format?

What we learnt in 2023 is: a mix of formats is needed across the day, involve the audience in the content as much as possible, everyone likes fun and some theatrics, avoid panels they are challenging to make engaging and actionable. Keep it simple – don't build in too many elements, authentic storytelling can be extremely powerful and strict time keeping is crucial. You can view the 2023 MFA EX content here.

There are no restrictions to the format of your session, so don't hold back on your creativity in how you want to inspire change e.g., interactive apps, Q&As, game etc.

Your content idea and format should....

- Convey and instil pride that working in our industry gives us power to be The Changers
- Be interactive and inclusive wherever possible
- Reflect current, emerging or future industry topics and trends
- Provide new and/or provocative perspectives
- Motivate and inspire people to change their thinking or behaviour
- Be of interest or value to the industry
- Be single-minded
- Be engaging/entertaining – conveying the fun & dynamism of our industry

Your content idea and format should not:

- Be selling something – MFA EX content sessions are not a sales pitch (e.g., selling an agency, channel, tool or service). This is one of MFA EX's key points of difference which came out strongly in media agency attendee feedback.
- Be death by PowerPoint
- Contain confidential information
- Take the work of another agency/individual/business and pass it off as one's own

Who can submit content ideas and contribute to the session?

MFA EX content is developed and curated by MFA media agencies – any individual or group who works for an MFA member agency in Australia can submit content a idea on behalf of their agency. We encourage agencies to consider including external perspectives and expertise as this can enhance credibility, provide new perspectives and entertainment (e.g., subject matter experts such as Behavioural Psychologists, Economists, Clients, Inspirational Speakers). However, this cannot be a sell.

Agency collaborations are also encouraged whether that be with other MFA member agencies, suppliers and/or media owners. Note, consultation with the MFA and approval will be required for media owner involvement, to ensure event sponsor interests are protected and to avoid any channel sell and conflicts.

NB: the agency is responsible for covering any production expenses over and above the standard event set-up.

Content submissions

Submit a 400 word content overview online at <https://mfaex.awardsplatform.com/>

NB: All submitters should have a positive indication of the suggested speaker's availability prior to submitting

What is the content selection process?

MFA EX is designed to give everyone in our industry the opportunity to have their voice heard, from agency CEOs to the best young talent on stage sharing insightful, actionable points of view. This extends to hearing from the diverse mix of MFA member agencies; big, small, full-service, media and specialists, global, local, and independent media agencies. There are no commitments or guarantees of content on stage to any member, all content submissions are reviewed on their own merit only.

An independent panel of industry representatives will curate the content to ensure a varied and inspiring MFA EX agenda for everyone and a fair selection process. Content is selected based on:

- The strength of the idea
- How well it meets the brief
- Does the idea and format convey the fun and dynamism of our industry?
- Is it inspiring, challenging, and educational for the audience?
- Will it influence change in what the audience thinks, feels or does?
- Does it demonstrate or rally We Are the Changers?
